RESPONSE TO QUESTION ON NOTICEQuestions on Notice Paper No 4*21 March 2025*Question No. 237

MS MORRIS: To ask the Attorney-General — In relation to the response to a question on notice from annual reports hearings, in which Dr John Boersig explained the nature of the work of Bradley John Burch/Sexton during his time at Legal Aid as a paralegal within the Criminal Law Practice, and assisting lawyers with “legal administrative work including booking appointments, updating and compiling client files, and filing documents at the courts”, did Mr Bradley Burch/Sexton have access to, or work on cases, with information related to children during his employment at Legal Aid.

TARA CHEYNE MLA - The answer to the Member’s question is as follows:

The Criminal Law Practice at Legal Aid ACT represents people charged with a broad range of criminal offences. This includes offences related to children prosecuted by both the Territory and Commonwealth governments.

Approved for circulation to the Member and incorporation into Hansard.
