From the Ninth Assembly onwards, questions on notice have been published in the Questions on Notice Paper,<sup>2</sup> all of which are available on the Assembly website.

For the First to Eighth Assemblies, questions on notice were published in the Notice Paper. Notice papers from 2003-onwards are available on the Assembly website, while those from 2001-2003 are available in hardcopy in the Office of the Clerk.

As the information is freely available, the Member is welcome to collate it as he sees fit and I do not propose to allocate the resources of the Office of the Legislative Assembly for this purpose.
