Question No. 282
MS CLAY: To ask the Minister for City and Government Services —

Does the ACT have any arterial roads that are below 60 km/h, or have speed restrictions in place for limited periods, such as school zones during school hours; if so, what roads are they, and why was the decision made to lower the speed limit, even if for short periods of time.

Ms Tara Cheyne MLA – The answer to the Member’s questions are as follows:

The ACT has a number of arterial road sections that are below 60 km/h either on a permanent basis (in 40km/h precincts) or for limited periods (school zones during school hours) – see table below.

Road name	Reason for reduced speed limit
Aikman Drive	These roads/road sections are part of the ACT’s 40 km/h High Pedestrian Activity Precincts.
Barry Drive
Constitution Avenue	The reduced speed was provided to enhance safety for all vulnerable road users (pedestrians and cyclists).
Cooyong Drive
Eastern Valley Way
Edinburgh Avenue
Florey Drive
Joynton Smith Drive
Northbourne Avenue
College Street	Sections of these roads, in the vicinity of school frontages, have 40km/h school zones operating during school hours to enhance safety for students and parents.
Woodcock Drive

Approved for circulation to the Member and incorporation into Hansard.
